Bunny Cox To Attend Summer Scout Event

Miss Bunny Cox has become the third member of Senior Girl Scout Troop #300 to win a national summer event. Bunny will spend three weeks in Hartford, Connecticut, where she, along with 59 other girls from across the nation will strive to understand the problems of handicapped people. Under the guidance of experienced personnel, she will work with em-tionally, physically, mentally and visually handicapped children.

Bunny will spend her time working at Waterford Regional School in Quaker Hill outside New London, Connecticut. She will be working at the Southeast Regional Center on the shore of Long Island Sound. Bunny will be working at the Rehabilitation Center of Southeast Connecticut in Uncasville, and Harkness Camp for the Blind in Waterford. While working at these centers, Bunny will serve as an aide to teachers, occupational and physical therapists. During her stay at Harkness Camp for the Blind, she will aid the counselors in teaching boating, sailing, and horsemanship riding.

Bunny will spend her free time at Mitchell College. The four days preceding her event, she will spend with another Girl Scout in her home in the Greater Hartford area. Bunny was awarded this opportunity on the basis of her former Girl Scout record and her interest in children. Last summer she worked as a counselor at Blue Lake Camp for retarded children, and has served as a volunteer worker at the Elba pre-school since September.

Immediately following the ceremony, the bride's parents entertained their guests at a reception in their home.

Mrs. E. C. Nevin and Mrs. Rex Nichols, sister of the groom, met and introduced the couple to the receiving line composed of Mrs. Spears, Mrs. Bowdoin and the bride and groom.

Miss Kathy Adams, cousin of the bride, presided at the guest book which was placed upon a table covered with a white lace cloth. The guest book was complemented by a silver candlestick holding a lighted pink taper and the nosegay which was carried by the junior bridesmaid.

The nosegays carried by the maid of honor and other attendants were placed upon a silver tray on the buffet.

The bride's table was overlaid with an imported white Nottingham lace cloth. The wedding cake was composed of three tiers resting on a tripod cake base. It was topped with white satin wedding bells framed by pearls arranged in the shape of hearts. The entire confection was embellished with pink roses and spun-sugar balls.

Attention was drawn to the top tier by placing it on white cones surrounded by lace. Punch was served from a crystal punch bowl encircled with plumosa fern and pink roses. At the center of the table was a silver candelabrum holding lighted pink tapers with the bride's bouquet at the base. Silver smooches of mints and nuts complemented the table setting.

Mrs. Guy Adams, aunt of the bride, cut and served the cake. She was assisted by Mrs. Billy Ray Williams. The punch was served by Mrs. Tommy Whitehurst, sister of the groom. Assisting her was Miss Hazel Spears, aunt of the bride.

Dainty tea sandwiches were passed on silver trays by the bridesmaids, Misses Mona and Kelly Young, passed the rice bags among the guests.

For her wedding trip the bride chose a white two-piece suit of polyester in a shantung weave. The jacket and skirt were fastened with square pearl buttons. To complete her costume, she chose a Kelly green blouse and pumps.

Assisting at the reception were Mrs. G. P. Nobles, Mrs. R. R. Donaldson, Mrs. Creigh Purcell, Mrs. Roy Adams, Mrs. Bobby Ray Knight, the Misses Beth and Laura Byrd and Mrs. John Foster.

Immediately following the ceremony, the bride's parents entertained their guests at a reception in their home.

Mrs. E. C. Nevin and Mrs. Rex Nichols, sister of the groom, met and introduced the couple to the receiving line composed of Mrs. Spears, Mrs. Bowdoin and the bride and groom.

Miss Kathy Adams, cousin of the bride, presided at the guest book which was placed upon a table covered with a white lace cloth. The guest book was complemented by a silver candlestick holding a lighted pink taper and the nosegay which was carried by the junior bridesmaid.

The nosegays carried by the maid of honor and other attendants were placed upon a silver tray on the buffet.

The bride's table was overlaid with an imported white Nottingham lace cloth. The wedding cake was composed of three tiers resting on a tripod cake base. It was topped with white satin wedding bells framed by pearls arranged in the shape of hearts. The entire confection was embellished with pink roses and spun-sugar balls.

Attention was drawn to the top tier by placing it on white cones surrounded by lace. Punch was served from a crystal punch bowl encircled with plumosa fern and pink roses. At the center of the table was a silver candelabrum holding lighted pink tapers with the bride's bouquet at the base. Silver smooches of mints and nuts complemented the table setting.

Mrs. Guy Adams, aunt of the bride, cut and served the cake. She was assisted by Mrs. Billy Ray Williams. The punch was served by Mrs. Tommy Whitehurst, sister of the groom. Assisting her was Miss Hazel Spears, aunt of the bride.

Dainty tea sandwiches were passed on silver trays by the bridesmaids, Misses Mona and Kelly Young, passed the rice bags among the guests.

For her wedding trip the bride chose a white two-piece suit of polyester in a shantung weave. The jacket and skirt were fastened with square pearl buttons. To complete her costume, she chose a Kelly green blouse and pumps.

Assisting at the reception were Mrs. G. P. Nobles, Mrs. R. R. Donaldson, Mrs. Creigh Purcell, Mrs. Roy Adams, Mrs. Bobby Ray Knight, the Misses Beth and Laura Byrd and Mrs. John Foster.

know your Carpeting

Wool carpets have been around for many years. In fact, the first wool carpets are believed to have been woven about 2000 B.C. Wool for carpets comes from special breeds of sheep which grow coarse, hardy, springy fibers. Primary sources of wool are New Zealand, Argentina, United Kingdom and Pakistan.

Wool carpets are known for durability, resilience, and cleanliness. Additional features include soil resistance, stain resistance, flame resistance, color fastness and retention, and texture retention.

You won't go wrong with any carpet from our extensive selection. We provide carpet for a room, or for the entire home.

FOOD PRICES VERSUS THE FARMER

In a conversation the other day, with one of Coffee County's local citizens, Doug Rymble, we discussed the concern by many people about the cost of food.

Many of us are aware that in 1960 - 208 of the average income was spent on food, and that today less than 16% of the average income is required for food.

Mr. Taylor, a local merchant, has stated that about 10% of the average consumer's grocery money was spent on food items which are non-storable. However, we realize that most of these items are essential, and must not constitute the amount of money spent on food stuffs with items which are not necessary in the preparation of our family meals.

The fact that the price of a feed such as soybean meal, cottonseed meal and peanut meal is more than double the price of wheat has a great deal to do with the rise of meat prices.

January, 1972, farmers received 38¢ per pound for prime beef and February, 1972, they received 38¢ per pound. The farmer cannot pay higher prices for feed for his livestock and continue to maintain his farming operation, under the current conditions, and the farmer. Although the price of most may seem unfair and too high to the average consumer, the farmer must sustain a living for himself and his family.

FERTILIZER IN EARLY SPRING PASTURES

J. C. Mack, of the Bradshaw Community, has just completed fertilizing his pasture. Permanent pastures should be fertilized just as growth starts in the spring. Moisture is usually ample at this time of the year and the pasture will respond as the temperature rises. If the pasture is mostly grass, a complete fertilizer should be applied. If there is a good growth of clover, only phosphorus and potassium should be used. A soil test is the best guide, and if an estimate of the percentages of grass and clovers from the area where the sample is drawn, is given, when it is sent to the laboratory, it will be helpful in making the fertilizer and lime recommendation.

Coffee County Southeast Students To Graduate

Names of candidates for degrees from Troy State University who will complete their degree requirements on March 24 have been released by Jeff McLain, TSU Registrar. They will receive their diplomas at graduation exercises in June.

Students from the Coffee County area are:

Bachelors Degrees:

Howard Rodney Barnes, James Mervin Bowles, Rita Bell, Gardwell, Herbert Dean Crosby, Neil Eageron, Errol Bon-Frazier, Charles Moore Gilford, June Jacobs Grantham, Kenneth Neil Grantham, Bobby Joe Grimley, Emmett O'Neal, Mildred Cowling Lockwood, Marilu Lee Norman, Wimpsey Devan Poyas, William Patrick Taylor, William Claude Tindall.

Masters Degrees:

Charles Henry Henderson, John Marasch, James Thomas Rogers, John Lamar Stewart.

One of the surest ways to have pretty shrubs this spring and summer is to soil test and follow the laboratory's recommendations.

A balanced lime and fertilizer program can determine the growth of shrubs. When needed, apply lime any time. Fertilizer is applied in early spring and again in early summer. When applying lime or fertilizer, broadcast the material evenly on the soil surface. Plants' feeder roots often extend twice the distance of the limb spread. Apply fertilizer throughout the area under the shrub and out to twice the distance from trunk to the end of branches. Fertilizer applied in a band around the plant may damage the plant roots.

A soil test is the best guide available to determine lime and plant nutrient needs for healthy plant growth.

Soil testing supplies and instructions for taking samples are available at our office.

BAKING TIPS

Sift no more! Generally speaking, there is no more need to sift flour because all-purpose and cake flour are finely milled.

Mix well - fat should be mixed thoroughly for cakes and pastries. Thorough mixing divides the fat into fine particles to give a tender crumb.

The Elba United Methodist Church is a sponsoring church of the Kellers and invites you to participate in their worship service this Sunday Morning.

Miriam Wilson To Tour Southeast

Elba's Miriam Wilson will tour the Southeast with the 45 voice Birmingham Southern College Choir on its annual spring tour March 26 through April 4.

Miss Wilson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wilson of 1004 Quarry Road Highway 201, Elba.

The choir will present performances to church and school groups. The school groups will have popular tunes accompanied by piano, organ, and guitar. The selection presented to the church groups will include sacred music, spirituals, and folk hymns, sung in Latin, German and English.

Gospel Singing To Be Held

There will be an Old-Fashioned Gospel Singing at the New Haven Baptist Church of Elba on March 24, at 7:30 p.m.

Featured singers will be: The Countrymen's Quartet, The Calvary Trio, and The Davis Brothers.

The Church is located on the Old River Road.

SOIL TESTING

The spring fashion picture presents dramatic new shapes in sleeves. Special sewing techniques are needed to insure comfort and good wear. The dolman sleeve may be cut as one with the waist or cut separately and attached at a neckline. The result is a long curve, has been seen extending from the sleeve and near the wastline. This line is easy to sew, but needs reinforcing to prevent stretching, a ripped seam or a tear.

To reinforce the dolman sleeve, make a piece of bias tape over the seamline so you can machine stitch on top of the previously stitched seam. Clip the seam allowance through the curved area. Or you can apply the tape by clipping the curved seam allowance, pressing the seam open and stitching tape to each seam allowance.

The kimono sleeve, usually an extension of a yoke or a bodice, is easy to sew and comfortable to wear. The sleeve and side seams are sewn in one continuous operation. A second row of stitching on the seam line for reinforcement could be used if the arm extends straight out from the bodice. Tape may be needed depending on the fabric.

Clip seam allowances.

When kimono sleeves are cut at an angle from the body, a good deal of interfacing is comfortable material. Follow your pattern guide sheet to put in the interfacing.

The raglan sleeve is another popular type. This sleeve has a seam running from the underarm diagonally up to another seam or the neckline. The pattern is gathered, set-in sleeve is appearing often in spring styles.

ZCHS Rebel News Editorial

Happiness -- Do you know how to find it? Happiness is the most sought after condition of human existence. What is happiness? It is a good feeling, full of peace and free from tension. Happiness is not made up of triumph and brilliant glory, but is composed of everyday events. Often hard work and struggle create more happiness than do winning and attainment.

Everyone is seeking the road to happiness and many choose very different routes. Some choose will living, drugs, or crime. Others look for a smooth road of do-nothing and the shortest road to happiness is the one on which we realize that in life there is no wonderland or divine state named happiness.

We must learn that happiness can be found in simple things, such as a child's trust, a certain look of love, doing a job well, friendship, and the beauty of nature. We must recognize that life is not a struggle and we shouldn't expect impossible goals such as breath taking success. Happiness is yours if you want it and into an ideal perfectly marriage in which both will live happily ever after with our super-perfect children, never growing old, and always making lots of money. These fantasies never happen. So don't wait for them with the idea that only they bring happiness. If you do this, it is likely you will spend more time in disappointment than in happiness.

As John Oppenheim expressed it, "The foolish man seeks happiness in the distance; the wise grows it under his feet."

Also John Barrymore once said, "Happiness sneaks in through a door you didn't know you left open."

Keep Happy!

Teacher Talk

Mrs. Genell Kelley Swett, 1st grade teacher, is spotlighted this week in Teacher Talk. She lives with her husband Lee, who works for Garwood in Enterprise, and her son Kevin, who is a third grader, near the Wise Mill Community.

Mrs. Swett's comment when asked what she liked about Z.C. was, "A lifetime dream has been fulfilled since I've been at Zion Chapel. I've always wanted to be in a small school where I was the only teacher for my grade. I really am enjoying it here."

To improve the school, Mrs. Swett suggests more equipment and teaching aids for the elementary school.

Mrs. Swett states that one of the most rewarding things in her life is teaching a first grader to read, and we are glad to have such a capable teacher in our school to start all the students on their road to education.

Teacher Talk

Mrs. Genell Kelley Swett, 1st grade teacher, is spotlighted this week in Teacher Talk. She lives with her husband Lee, who works for Garwood in Enterprise, and her son Kevin, who is a third grader, near the Wise Mill Community.

Mrs. Swett's comment when asked what she liked about Z.C. was, "A lifetime dream has been fulfilled since I've been at Zion Chapel. I've always wanted to be in a small school where I was the only teacher for my grade. I really am enjoying it here."

To improve the school, Mrs. Swett suggests more equipment and teaching aids for the elementary school.

Mrs. Swett states that one of the most rewarding things in her life is teaching a first grader to read, and we are glad to have such a capable teacher in our school to start all the students on their road to education.

ELBA REPORT

Editors Of The Week

CUTEST COUPLE

Jimmy Morrow Goes To Washington

Studying American Government is often like walking into a hall of mirrors. Each time you look you see a different image, but the reflection is always the same. The purpose of this column is to provide a clear, unbiased view of the current happenings in Washington, D.C., and the role of the young man who is currently in the White House.

Dean Stewart: Mr. Foley's not as strict on Seniors. Max Davis: Getting out of class all the time and graduating. Bruce Thompson: Noting, "cause I'd rather not be one. Ronnie Parrish: Graduation on May 25. Elaine Head: Just knowing I'm a senior. Jerry Henderson: Doing anything you want to, when you want to, where you want to. Roger Moore: Skipping class. Doug Wambles: Getting to be on the annual staff and do a lot of things you wouldn't get to do if you weren't a senior. Henrietta Gaines: Knowing it's the last year. Billy Tyson: Having seniority over other people. Donna Adkinson: Working on the yearbook, graduation, snow, and being SAC Champs. Anitra Hammonds: Getting a lot of privileges. Barbara Walker: Knowing that I'm going to graduate.

Heart attacks kill more men and women each year than the next three major causes of death combined (cancer, stroke, accidents).

Alexander and the Terrible, Horrible, No Good, Very Bad Day

I went to sleep with gum in my mouth and now there's gum in my hair and when I got out of bed this morning I tripped on the skateboard and by mistake I dropped my sweater in the sink while the water was running and I could tell it was going to be a terrible, horrible, no good, very bad day.

At breakfast, Anthony found a Corvette Stingray car kit in his breakfast cereal box and Nick found a Junior Undercover Agent code ring in his breakfast cereal box but in my breakfast cereal box all I found was breakfast cereal.

I think I'll move to Australia. In the car pool Mrs. Gibson let Becky have a seat by the window. Audrey and Elliot got seats by the window too. I said I was being crunched by the window. I am going to be car sick. No one even answered.

I could tell it was going to be a terrible, horrible, no good, very bad day.

At school, Mrs. Dickens liked Paul's picture of the sail boat invisible castle. At singing time she said I sang too loud. At counting time she said I left out sixteen. Who needs sixteen? I could tell it was going to be a terrible, horrible, no good, very bad day.

I could tell because Paul said I wasn't his best friend anymore. He said that Phillip Parker was his best friend and that Albert Mayo was his next best friend and that I was only his third best friend.

I hope you sit on a tack. I said to Paul. I hope the next time you get a double-decker strawberry ice cream cone the

There were lima beans for dinner and I hate lima beans. There was kissing on TV and I hate kissing. My bath was too hot, I got soap in my eyes, my marble went down the drain, and I had to wear my railroad train pajamas.

The cat wants to sleep with Anthony, not with me. It has been a terrible, horrible, no good, very bad day. My mom says days are like that.

Even in Australia. By Judith Vorst.

Elba Wins Rifle Matches

On February 27, 1973, a rifle match between Elba and Baker, Florida, was held at the JROTC gym in Elba. Fires in the match for Elba were as follows: (Individual scores indicated in parenthesis) Richard Clark (246), Joe Morrow (243), Keith Hornaby (220), and John Waddall (238). Elba won the match by a team score of 947 to Baker's 789. Richard Clark set a team record by firing 246, which was the highest individual score Elba has ever had in a rifle match.

On March 1, 1973, the JROTC GYM IN Elba was the setting of a rifle match between Elba and Troy. Fires for Elba were as follows: Richard Clark (228), Terry Harrison (224), Joe Morrow (222) and John Waddall (223). Elba defeated Troy by a team score of 897-765.

Remember When the girls couldn't wear pants, the Beatles sang "I Want to Hold Your Hand," there were no class permits, lunch tickets, etc. we didn't have lockers we stayed in the same class all day. Mr. King drove a school bus we had assembly every week. Our moms and dads came to visit us at school. we had to take a nap after dinner. Jimmy Morrow was a private.

Annual Black & Gold Game Held

Elba Rehab Basketball Season

The Elba Rehab Basketball team had an enjoyable season. The team played a ten game schedule and ended the season playing in the tournament at Andalusia. The team received third runner-up trophy and Charlie Head was voted to the all tournament team.

There were lima beans for dinner and I hate lima beans. There was kissing on TV and I hate kissing. My bath was too hot, I got soap in my eyes, my marble went down the drain, and I had to wear my railroad train pajamas.

The cat wants to sleep with Anthony, not with me. It has been a terrible, horrible, no good, very bad day. My mom says days are like that.

With Ferin Cox

We had a detailed story prepared several weeks ago about the ups and downs on the proposed Elba housing project. The story was held because of poor planning on our part and "time heals all wounds" as the saying goes. Discussion on the matter has completely stopped apparently, and therefore the story was scrapped. It was decided to explain to our readers exactly what was happening and what was only rumors and politics. It dealt with the building experience of Southern Development Company, the approved builder. At first we had reservations about their ability and reputation, but an in-depth check revealed other towns entering additional contracts with the company after using them in previous years. This information, along with an interview with the builder, removed any doubt from my mind.

The Coffee County Commissioners have adopted a "unit system" of road construction and maintenance slightly different from the system endorsed by Representative Douglas Easters and Probate Judge James Sawyer, and virtually identical to a very vocal group in Enterprise. This action caught the Enterprise group by surprise, but they later said "It is a step in the right direction." This new approach, described in a front page news article this week, follows closely to my opinion on this type thing.

First, we elected these men to do a job the majority felt they were capable of doing. In Coffee County Second, while changes can be for the better, let's go slow on changing and not go so far we can't back up without expensive "big-takes." I don't object to our county being on the "complete unit system" if it is the wishes of the majority of the people in the county, but would fight a self-appointed "Ralph Nader type" trying to save (?) us from destruction, especially when they say any one system will solve ALL our problems. Nothing is better than the humans who carry out the detailed day-to-day work.

A hazard of writing newspaper editorials, especially in a small town like Elba, is the fact that from time to time a friend must come in for editorial criticism. This week it happens to Deputy Sheriff Neil Grantham.

Last week we carried a detailed front-page story about a man dressed as a woman, attempting to kill himself and also excerpts from his notes detailing how he was going to kill or punish 150 women. Well, the man was locked up the first night but later the next day, Deputy Grantham released the man to the custody of his 47-year-old, almost-blind father. This was without an examination by any psychiatrist to determine if he really planned to commit the gruesome crime detailed on his note pad. I have no idea not make no claim the man was dangerous - probably only did what he thought and when he was killed he was asked to bring a GA project to "show and tell" about their "Lee and Tell" about their

I endorse the move by the city council to require everyone to pay the city garbage tax (fee). I will not get into the merits and demerits of the amounts being charged but... people paying the charges will not be interested in taking their garbage out and dumping it beside a road or dropping it off the bridge into a Coffee County creek or river as some now do. Also those putting their garbage into a neighbor's cans and getting a free ride, can carry their share of the load.

SPORTS

with JOHNN MARTIN

The Alabama Crimson Tide has moved into the quarter-finals of National Invitation Tournament at Madison Square Garden in New York, and surprisingly has proved its basketball prowess to the rest of the nation. It seems that we were elated that C. M. Newton's bunch was even invited to the tournament, but did it ever cross your mind?

Well, we must admit that the win over Manhattan (16-10) wasn't the biggest pinnacle the Tide reached during the season, and more will be proved when they meet Minnesota, who loved with Rutgers in the opening round. But man for man, Alabama can match up with any team in that department.

It seems a bit ironic that Glenn Garrett, the "other" man in a lineup that includes all SEC players, Wendell Hudson and Charles Cleveland, fired the shot that won the game. Garrett may not be the flashiest player on the team (Ray Odoms has that title), but consistency is the asset that coaches strive for in big-time basketball. Garrett fills the bill in that department.

In the NCAA semi-finals in St. Louis, UCLA takes from or adds to (whichever be the case) the interest. It's quite amusing that Providence University head coach Dave Gavitt stated that his team "eagerly" awaits a rematch with the Bruins. They were slaughtered by UCLA (better known as the Walton Gang) in Pauley Pavilion two months ago. Let's say they await the rematch, and leave out the coach. Gavitt.

Video Blue: Hank Aaron shoots for Babe Ruth's home run record, and Fritz Peterson and Mike Kottich says

What else is new on the major league baseball front? The opinion here is that the Boston Red Sox are. Although the only new face in the Boston lineup is Orlando Cepeda (who will probably be a designated hitter), the Sox are favored to win the American League pennant this year.

With people like Carlton Fisk (1972 Rookie of the Year), Carl Yastrzemski, Reggie Smith, and Tommy Harper in the starting lineup, they have offense and defense enough to whip anybody. Let's go with Boston in the American League.

On the local golf scene, our first club tournament of the season was won by Everett Kelly. The playoff, played on Saturday, March 17, attracted nineteen players. Although the weather was less than perfect, and the course was a bit damp, our members seemed to enjoy the competition. We plan to have at least one tournament a month during the summer and to conduct the weekly dog-fights throughout the season.

The Acteens will meet in the Sanctuary and will begin their meeting with election of officers. There will be two guest speakers. Mrs. R. W. J. Jack, Coffee Association President, and Rev. Richard Crowe, Coffee Association Director of Missions.

At the close of the meetings, there will be fellowship and refreshments for everyone. All GA's and Acteens are asked to mark their calendars and to be present for the Association's event.

Each GA group is asked to bring a GA project to "show and tell" about their
